INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this bibliography is to highlight the dissertations that support the achievement of doctoral degrees of the faculty of the University of the Bahamas, formerly The College of The Bahamas, as well as doctoral research about the Bahamas produced from 2012-2019. This compilation continues the previous bibliographies compiled by Dr. Berthamae Walker in 2003, 2005, 2008 and 2012. The entries for 2012 included in this bibliography are the omissions from the previous article published.

The University Libraries provide access to print copies of Bahamian-related dissertations in the Special Collections department of the Harry C. Moore Library or via links to electronic copies in the Library's online public access catalog and Digital Library of the Caribbean, a Caribbean repository.

Databases consulted included Open Access Theses and Dissertations, PQDT Open from ProQuest, EBSCO Open Dissertations, WorldCat, and the University of The Bahamas online public access catalog.

We apologise for any errors or omissions, which should be included in the next compilation.

Note: Highlighted entries are written by College/University of The Bahamas faculty.
